ABOUT THE CONSTITUTIONAL LAW CLUB, NUSRL

The Constitutional Law Club is established in the year 2019 to study the contemporary issues and its validity under the Constitution. This Club provides to the future lawmakers and lawyers an opportunity to understand the depth of the Constitution and provide suggestion for better functioning of the government machinery.

The Club strives at creating opportunity and in-depth understanding of the nuances of the Constitution. It also aims at creating a platform where students and scholars can freely exchange their views regarding the contemporary issues and provide solutions to these issues. The Constitutional Law Club Blog is a way of furthering the discussions on the changes happening around us and whether they follow the Constitutional ethos or not.

GUIDELINES FOR AUTHORS

With the object of furthering discussions on constitutional law, the Constitutional Law Club Blog, welcomes submission from members of the bar, legal professionals, law students, or every constitutional law enthusiasts. The blog intends to publish opinions pieces in foregrounding rights and other reforming laws and contemporary developments in the domain of constitutional law or its intersection with the other disciplines and areas of law.
