MOOT PROPOSITION

1. Klindia, a Democratic Republic state is situated in Asia and surrounded by Rhina, Rakiztan, Ranglawesh and Rankar. Having reputation of being world's 2nd place in terms of population (1.3 Billion) after Rhina (2 Billion) and being globalized and liberalized in 1772. The terms of Klindia with Rhina were never good.
2. In year 2017, Rhina developed a virus for its research purposes and named it SOVID-17. Somehow, the virus made its way out and spread in the city Rushan, a city near borders of Klindia. Soon, this virus caused to be pandemic in Klindia and hospitals witnessed daily casualties. There was complete lockdown of 20 weeks. Only prevention in form of wearing masks, social distancing and strong immunity was the possible efforts in lack of vaccine. In lack of economic activity, many lost their jobs. The lockdown came as surprise to everyone. There were strict timings for opening and closing of grocery shops, vegetable shops etc. Except medicine shops, all shops were ordered to shut down.
3. Mr. Ramesh had two children, a girl named Rakshi of 10 years and Raksham of 14 years. Both children were allergic to milk related food and on 20th October, they developed the allergy. Mr. Ramesh took them to a nearby hospital named Ken Hospital which denied to see the patients on pretext that all doctors are busy and only SOVID-17 related admissions are going on. Both children had no options but to resort to home remedies, they got rashes on their skin, specifically on their hands. Further, on next day, the rashes escalated to tissue ruptures. Mr. Ramesh wanted to contact any hospital available but to no avail. The children developed a severe infection on their hands.
4. Mr. Ramesh made a contact with the Hope Insurance Company to claim and seek assistance as he was regularly paying the premiums for family protection. The Insurance Company demanded the bills & prescriptions for settlement. Mr. Ramesh had bills from local medical store but not prescription. Feeling hopeless, he sought medical advice from a teleconsultation app DocDekho from which he found a glittering profile of a doctor. He prescribed some ointments which became more fatal to his children. After paying Rs. 500 for tele-consultation he felt cheated. On 23rd October 2017, he lodged an FIR for fraud happened to him because of the app which was in Pleystore. The children were treated by a special group of army doctors in an Army Hospital when Chief Minister heard his problem but certain nerves damage was irreversible.

5. Mr. Ramesh, a branch manager in Kling Bank (Village Rusur-New Selhi state) was detected by Dr. Keni from Rusur's govt. hospital testing camp as SOVID-17 positive on 25th October, 2017, as the bank decided to test its employees who are in regular touch with public. Mr. Ramesh was skeptical about results as he had no symptoms. He went to a private hospital named TAIMS (New Selhi) for a detailed RT-PCR test and was found negative. The Regional Manager of Kling Bank issued a circular that all employees who are tested positive shall have to go for 7 days institutional quarantine and 14 days home quarantine.
6. Mr. Ramesh was the only one who was detected positive, in fact in whole village. He requested the regional manager to let him join the bank but to no avail. He lodged an FIR on 26th October, 2017 against Dr. Keni on account of false report of SOVID-17. As media came to know about it, Rez TV News channel interviewed SOVID warrior Dr. Keni and came to know that most of them who are tested positive are asymptomatic and test results vary. The village hospital does not have adequate infrastructure for using Rs. 3000 RT-PCR test, so it can only do simple swab test. Rez TV news channel investigated further and came to know that Mr. Ramesh on occasions has also bribed some traffic constable while he was riding his scooter without helmet and required papers. News channel highlighted the news that how Mr. Ramesh is in habit of corruption and lodged FIR while not cooperating with quarantine guidelines of unlock IV.
7. The investigation officer Mr. Bali did no further progress on the case as he found no merits and had no expertise on such issues. On 27th October, 2017 Mr. Bali in his police van took Mr. Ramesh to a nearby Quarantine center to rest for 7 days. The quarantine center was a govt. school in New Selhi, densely populated and had just one washroom. Mr. Ramesh came into contact with few SOVID positive patients and developed the symptoms, having severe breathing issues. Rez Tv flashed headlines while showing his video- "If you don't cooperate, you may develop symptoms and your evil inside dies gradually.” Ramesh survived the institutional quarantine after having put on ventilators for 2 days.

8. On 1st November 2017, he escaped from the institution, fearing that he may die due to poor hygiene there. On the very same day Mr. Bali arrested him under Epidemic Diseases Act, 1897, several sections of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (IPC) and the Disaster Management Act, 2005. The bail was denied initially but later on, he was released on bail after 15 days, on bonds. Neighbors behaved so rudely as if he was a criminal. His wife Moujunita was sent back home from the groceries shop while she being wife of the SOVID 17 affected patient. Mr. Ramesh, his wife Moujunita remained 2 days without ration and food, surviving only on water. However, he was sent rice and wheat by state govt. authorities later at his doorstep. He reached bank to join on 18th November 2017, and was allotted a corner most seat shielded with plastics and sanitizers although it was not necessary. Outside his cabin, a big poster was attached, having displayed in bold, ex-SOVID patient, and keep distance.
9. Rez Tv appreciated this social distancing move and congratulated the Employer. The documents, files and everything sent to his desk was sanitized. On the very same day, he reached an NGO Raksham (New Selhi) and narrated his story. Every day, he was harassed by some media anchors, asking about his experiences in quarantine center and how he bribed the private hospital to get negative reports. The name of private hospital TAIMS was already being dragged by Rez Tv. The Hospital owner along with his advocate held a meeting with Mr. Ramesh and the NGO and sent a legal notice to Rez TV but to no avail.
10. NGO collected the data by 2nd December, 2017 and was shocked to know that such situations are quite common and notified Mr. Ramesh about it. Now the NGO wishes to represent Ramesh in Supreme Court against state govt. and such media channels.
