What is Constitution day?

Constitution Day (National Law Day), also known as Samvidhan Divas, is celebrated in India on 26 November every year to commemorate the adoption of the Constitution of India. On 26 November 1949, the Constituent Assembly of India adopted the Constitution of India, and it came into effect on 26 January 1950.

Topic

About the Competition

Freedom of speech is our fundamental right under the constitution and hence we have a liberty to express our opinions freely. By its very nature, the democratic process spurs citizens to form opinions on a number of issues. With the same motive, School of Business and Law has organized an Opinion Writing Competition online for all the undergraduate law students on the occasion of Constitution Day. Our aim is to generate a thought process which in turn will create a reasoned opinion on the topic.
